

Using a Remote Release

A remote release can be used for long time-exposures. When using an optional RR-100 remote release or an electronic release from third-party suppliers, connect it to the camera's microphone/remote release connector via a third-party $\phi 2.5$ mm to 3.5 mm adapter.

-  A confirmation dialog will be displayed when a remote release is connected; press MENU/OK and select REMOTE for MIC/REMOTE RELEASE.
